Currently working on a new album, comic book, robot and another batch of websites :-P

Some words to describe myself

Punctual, consistent, professional, courteous, finisher, artistic

"Seth" is a great addition to any team.

Timothy has held many roles over his long career. His career includes freelance projects, long-term contracts, traditional employment and per project assignments.

Timothy has worked a balanced freelance carrer and a full time position since early 1999. In these duel roles Timothy was able to pursue his passion in web development while working as a manager, customer service representative, or technical support representative full time.

Timothy has provided exceptional service to a lot of clients over the years.

Recent accomplishments include two new albums on Itunes, new videos on youtube, upgrading my life and releasing advanced themer updates.

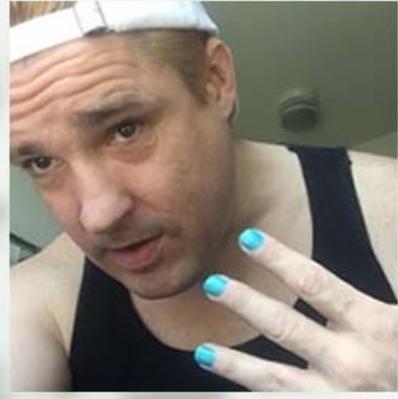

Thank you for your interest!
